

YOUTH CAMP DRESS CODE

SECTION 1: POLICY

- Whereas the world is trying to invade our ranks, and due to some young people being new in the church, and to help maintain a Godly standard of holiness, we as a Youth Committee see a need to hold to Godly standards of holiness.
- Be it understood that we DO NOT consider these Dress Codes the maximum holiness standard, but only the minimum for the purpose of conducting a Youth Camp.
- Be it further required that a copy of the "Dress Codes" be made available to all of our pastors and that they be responsible for informing youth and parents of said code and enforcement.
- Be it further required that this dress code be enforced at Youth Camp by the IYM Committee and Staff. Enforcement procedure will involve the following: After a complaint has been made by Youth Camp Faculty or Youth Camp Help, such as dorm supervisors, nurse, etc., the youth first be admonished to comply with the code. If the code is repeatedly or continuously violated, the pastor of the youth is to be advised to notify the parents and the youth is to be sent home.

SECTION 2: DRESS CODES (CAMPERS/CAMP STAFF)

- Boys' hair must not be any longer than would reach over their shirt collar in the back
- Boy's sideburns are to be no longer than the bottom of the ear.
- Boys shorts are the discretion of your pastor. If worn, must be knee length when sitting and standing
- Appropriate undergarments must be worn when wearing sweat pants
- Jerseys and proper sporting attire (i.e. wind pants or sweat pants) may be worn during recreation time, but not to evening services.
- No plain white tee shirts may be worn by boys or girls as outer apparel
- No tight or form fitting clothing
- Jewelry of any kind is prohibited on the campgrounds. (Example: necklaces, earrings, wrist or ankle bracelets, etc.)
- Makeup is not allowed to be worn at any time.
- No undergarments are to be worn on the outside of clothing (Example: corsets, swimsuits, etc.)
- Shirts, blouses, and dresses are to have at least a standard short sleeve, which is defined as coming at least midway between the shoulder and elbow.
- Girls' dress must be modest, not revealing or exposing the body immodestly by slits, low necklines, or thin, see-through material.
- Dresses and skirts must be to the knee when sitting down. No slits should be above the knee.
- No sleeveless or cap sleeve dresses or blouses
- Clothing that explicitly or implicitly promotes racism, sexism, sexual actions, profanity, tobacco, drugs, alcohol, or hatred toward a certain group of people will not be allowed.

YOUTH CAMP RULES

- All camper's vehicle keys must be turned in to the IYM Team upon arrival and campers cannot use their vehicles during camp without prior permission from the IYM Team.
- Campers are not permitted to leave the grounds without permission from the IYM Team
- Campers are required to attend all classes, recreational activities, and evening services unless excused by an IYM Team Member.
- Boys are not permitted to enter the area of the girls dormitories and the girls are not permitted to enter or visit anyone in the boys section.
- Every camper and counselor is responsible for their own bedding, clothing, luggage, and personal belongings. It is not encouraged for campers and camp staff members to bring "valuables" to camp as they may get lost, broken, or stolen.
- All should give respect to the campgrounds, buildings, and facilities. Individuals defacing Sunstream property or the natural surrounds must pay for the damage incurred.
- Campers and counselors are required to stay in their dorms each night from "Lights Out" until breakfast the following morning, except for special emergencies. No lights or noise is permitted in the dorms during sleeping hours.
- It is expected that everyone dresses modestly at all times.
- All campers are to remain in their assigned areas for sleeping. No "switching" is allowed without the previous consent of both counselors involved. NO BED SHARING.
- Boys and girls will not be allowed to sit together during classes or services
- A student is to get permission from an IYM Team Member or Dorm Counselor before leaving a class or service for any reason.
- Campers may not leave the services until they are officially dismissed.
- The general standard of behavior shall be such as is becoming to Christian Youth.
- Public display of affection of any kind is strictly prohibited.
- No knives, guns, laser pointers, or explosives (including fireworks), are permitted at camp.
- The use of tobacco, drugs, or alcohol in any form will not be allowed on the campgrounds. All prescription drugs must be turned in to the camp nurse.
- No possession of pornography or any such like will be allowed on the grounds.
- Students: Cell phones are NOT allowed at camp
- Campers found guilty of theft or malicious damage to any articles by confession or evidence, shall forfeit all rights and must leave the campgrounds. The responsible party must make restitution for any damages.
- All students who attend the camp are subject to the rules and dress codes of the camp and are not allowed to leave the camp without special permission until they have been officially withdrawn or dismissed from the camp.
